Terrific Teachers

PHOTOGRAPHY BY MED DEMENT

Everyone remembers their elementary school teachers. Who can forget those who devoted their time day in and day out to teaching us foundations of reading, writing, spelling and basic math? The Chattanooga area is home to many enthusiastic elementary school teachers who regularly dedicate their time and talents to the development of our children. The following six women are just a few of these unforgettable teachers.

Anne Fellers, a 4th grade teacher at Signal Mountain Christian School, is a resident of Signal Mountain. She has been a teacher for 15 years and enjoys hiking, tennis, cooking, reading and spending time with friends and family. She also directs the after school care program at her school.

Anne's black skirt by Joseph Ribkoff and turquoise wrap blouse by Marisa Baratelli are provided by Anna Ball White. Her iridescent black "Lonneke" sandals by B Brian Atwood are provided by Embellish.

Pamela Maria Gonzalez, a

Spanish and culture teacher at St. Nicholas Episcopal School, is a resident of the Rivermont neighborhood in North Chattanooga. She has been teaching Spanish and English (ESL) for 20 years in the U.S., Spain, Columbia, Peru and India and is a board member of the International Business Council of the Chattanooga Chamber of Commerce. She enjoys outdoor activities, watching the Chattanooga Futbol Club play, and spending time with her family.

Pamela Maria's black skirt and black sleeveless ruffle blouse by Joseph Ribkoff are provided by Anna Ball White. Her silver "Liese 2" shoes by B Brian Atwood are provided by Embellish, and her sparkling earrings are also from Anna Ball White.

Vicki Everett, a fifth grade writing teacher at The Bright School, is a resident of the Riverview neighborhood in North Chattanooga. She has been a teacher for 24 years, and enjoys gardening, cooking and spending time with her family.

Vicki's gold sequin "Dolman" top by Magaschoni and tan "Dixon" pant by Lafayette 148 New York are provided by Alice Blue. Her dark green patent "Galerie" shoes by Bettye Muller are provided by Embellish.

Also from Alice Blue are Vicki's Pono bracelets, Vita Fede gold ring, Coralia Leets rose gold earrings and Botkier Mischa gold clutch.

Cathy Czarnecki, a 6th and 7th grade language arts teacher at St. Jude Catholic School, is a resident of Harrison. She has been a teacher for 14 years, and enjoys reading, camping, kayaking and spending time with her family.

Cathy's metallic basketweave dress from the 2011 Per Se holiday collection is by the Carlisle Collection available exclusively at Embellish. Her gold platform "Penola" shoes by Rupert Sanderson are also from Embellish.

Meredith Ruffner, a 2nd grade teacher at St. Peter's School, is a resident of Signal Mountain. In addition to teaching for 17 years, she is a "cuddler" in the NICU at Children's Hospital and a founding member of The Children's Trust.

Meredith is dressed in apparel provided by K: A Boutique by Katherine Roberts. Her grey "Jocelyn" zigzag dress is by Lesley Evers. Her "Ankara" silver earrings are by Moon and Lola, and her "Irina II" black patent pumps are by Pour la Victorie.

Erin Hangstefer, a kindergarten teacher at Brainerd Baptist School, is a resident of Brainerd. She has been a teacher for seven years, and loves to travel, cook, and spend time with friends. She is also a member of Brainerd Baptist Church.

Erin's blue dress with beaded shoulder embellishment by Decode 1.8 and her bracelet are provided by Ciao Bella. Her silver "Outnout" shoes by Stuart Weitzman are provided by Embellish.
