Chattanooga's First Family of Furniture Celebrates 120 Years...

FIFTH GENERATION CONTINUES THE FOWLER FAMILY HERITAGE PROVIDING QUALITY FURNITURE AT BOTTOM-LINE PRICES EVERY DAY

For five generations the Fowler family has been providing fine furniture for the Chattanooga area. Their long success is clearly attributed to satisfied, loyal customers and their continued patronage. The family's focus and mission is to help you create the finest interiors and outdoor rooms at reasonable prices. Their experienced and professional staff is more than happy to provide you with plenty of great ideas for your interior spaces and your outdoor rooms. Also, they have a complimentary design service for your convenience either in the store or in your home. They invite you to both The Furniture Shoppe and The Patio Shop to start planning your new design project.

THE FURNITURE SHOPPE

The Fowler Family got their start in the furniture business in 1888. Now 120 years later, five generations of Fowlers have added their experience and dreams to expand the family heritage and build one of the most respected fine furniture stores in the country. The Furniture Shoppe offers a wide selection of styles that will suit any family's needs. They understand that your home should be a place to feel comfortable and enjoy your family. Their friendly design staff leads the region in product knowledge and experience. They help you buy right the first time by taking the confusion out of your decorating project. From the prestige of Baker, Stickley, and other premier furniture brands to wall-coverings, rugs, mattresses and one-of-a-kind accessories, The Furniture Shoppe and its staff will guide you from selection to set-up in your home.

THE PATIO SHOP

Right next door to The Furniture Shoppe is The Patio Shop. Just a dream in 1979 and a display of wrought iron furniture in a big open field, today it is one of the largest and finest indoor and outdoor showplaces in the country, displaying over 200 patio, porch and poolside groups plus beautiful furniture for indoor sunrooms and casual dining rooms. They also offer outdoor lighting, fans, rugs, accessories, grills, and even children's play systems. The Patio Shop's outdoor specialists help you pick the style that is right for you. They are very skilled and knowledgeable about their products. They can educate you about construction, quality, design, and what styles will look best for your home and outdoor living areas. There is no pressure, no hassle and no rush. You can take your time to examine what interests you and at the same time, make the very best and most informed decisions.

YOU GET THE BOTTOM-LINE BEST PRICING EVERY DAY!

With 120 years of furniture buying experience, the Fowler family is very focused on offering you the very best price every day. At the Furniture Shoppe and Patio Shop, they always use and discount from the actual factory published price list. "We know that consumers expect quality and service along with the best price," says Richard Fowler. "Please come in and help us celebrate 120 years of being in business and serving the Chattanooga area."
